

find GOD. find LIFE.

Life isn't easy. And finding contentment, satisfaction and meaning in life isn't easy either. But maybe we're looking and searching after it in the wrong places. Maybe if we started with the creator, we would have a better idea of what life should look like.

find God. find Life!

Latechurch Weekend Away 31 Jul-2 Aug at Camp Somerset

John Piper, in his book "Desiring God" said that "God is most glorified in us when we are most satisfied in Him". Do you believe that?

Over the course of the weekend, L-T Hopper is going to be helping us work through what God has to say about our inbuilt pursuit of happiness and contentment. Why are we never content? What is it that God can offer that we can't get elsewhere? And what does life look like when we seek it from God?

Come along and hear L-T bring us what God has to say to us. It might just change your life.

ALL THE INFORMATION YOU'LL NEED TO GET STARTED

L-T HOPPER

L-T is married to Belinda and they have 3 children. After finishing his studies at Sydney Missionary and Bible College he began work at Christ Church, Gladesville in Sydney in 1998. He used to own the Opera House (see picture), but found upkeep hard. He started working as the Pastor of Lakeshore Church, Buderim in 2007, and is a gifted bible teacher, with a passion for people understanding Romans 5:8.

two reasons to make it to the weekend away

1. YOU'LL BE CHALLENGED

There are few times in the year you get to step outside the busyness of life, to shut off your auto-pilot, and to listen to what God has to say. This weekend will be one of those times. You'll be challenged by the talks, you'll be challenged by others, and you'll get to reassess whether the direction you're heading, is the direction God is leading. One weekend could change your life.

2. YOU'LL ENJOY IT

Just because it's challenging, doesn't mean it's hard work. There'll be plenty of time to sit around, drink coffee, bush walk, swim, ski and chat. Just think of it as a LateChurch Contiki tour...but one in Somerset...without all the travel sickness, annoying tourists and uncomfortable beds...actually, don't think about it like that at all. Just think of it as a weekend away with friends. If you don't know many people, this weekend is the perfect opportunity.
